2. Internationally educated applicants who demonstrate that they graduated from an acceptable academic program, as defined in Schedule D or Schedule E of the CSHBC Bylaws, which was delivered in English. This must include all academic learning and clinical practice.
3. Applicants applying under section 71 of the CSHBC Bylaws (labour mobility within Canada) who can evidence they demonstrated English proficiency in the course of being registered in the Canadian jurisdiction from which they are transferring.
4. Applicants for Temporary registration who:
  - a. Are a registrant of another Canadian jurisdiction, to whom they demonstrated English proficiency to become registered; or
  - b. Are a registrant of a non-Canadian jurisdiction whose official language(s) includes English and can demonstrate that they completed their post-secondary education in the profession to which they are applying in English. This must include all academic learning and clinical practice.

For applicants who do not demonstrate one or more of the qualifying circumstances, applicants may satisfy the registration committee of their English language proficiency by taking one of the following acceptable standardized language tests and obtaining the minimum acceptable scores<sup>4</sup> as follows:

Language:	English
Acceptable test:	TOEFL Internet Based Test (iBT) or the TOEFL iBT Home Edition	IELTS (Academic or General) or IELTS Online (Academic)

<sup>3</sup> Speech-language pathology graduates from Université Laval, Université de Montréal, and the University of Ottawa are not exempted from the English language proficiency requirement.

<sup>4</sup> These are informed by language benchmarking work for the professions completed by the Canadian Centre for Language Benchmarks (CCLB) and mapped to Canadian Language Benchmark (CLB) of 9 in all domains of language use (speaking, listening, reading, and writing).

Required minimum score:	Speaking: 26	Speaking: 7.5
	Listening: 26	Listening: 8
	Reading: 22	Reading: 7.5
	Writing: 24	Writing: 7.5

Successful completion of one of the approved tests must be within the last two years from the date of application to CSHBC. Test results must be submitted to the Registrar directly from the approved testing organization.

An applicant who has written an acceptable standardized language test but not obtained a minimum acceptable score may provide additional evidence that may, when weighed by the registration committee together with the applicant's language test scores, satisfy the registration committee of the applicant's English language proficiency. Acceptable additional evidence may include one or more of the following:

- a. successful completion of elementary and secondary education in English;
- b. confirmation of practice in the profession for which the applicant is applying for registration in a predominantly English language setting;
- c. confirmation of work experience in a Canadian healthcare setting where services are provided in English;
- d. successful completion of additional study relating to the profession for which the applicant is applying for registration, or a related field of study, leading to a diploma or degree, in English;
- e. published articles or papers, including publications relating to the profession for which the applicant is applying for registration or a related field of study, in English.

The Registration Committee retains discretion as to when and how it may require that an applicant demonstrate English language proficiency, and when it is satisfied with an applicant's proficiency.
