

CSHBC Opportunities | Professional Practice Advisor, Audiology (AUD)

April 22, 2021

CSHBC is seeking a Registered Audiologist (RAUD) with proven leadership in professional practice for a part-time staff position (approximately 15 hours per week) as a Professional Practice Advisor.

Supporting the Director, Quality Assurance & Professional Practice (QAPP) and the Registrar & CEO, the Professional Practice Advisor, AUD, is responsible for advising registrants and the public on practice issues relating to ethics and professional and clinical practice standards that govern the profession of audiology in British Columbia. The Professional Practice Advisor for audiology provides information and guidance to ensure registrants comply with their ethical and professional obligations and maintain their knowledge and understanding of applicable laws and standards.

The Professional Practice Advisor, AUD, works collaboratively with the QAPP team, engages with registrants and communication health assistants through practice consultations, supports the College's QAPP Program and QAPP-related committees, and participates in collaborative policy development processes supporting policy and standard development and decision-making.

If you are a dynamic person with a commitment to the safe, ethical, and competent practice of audiology, and would like to be part of a high-performance organization that exemplifies a culture of mutual respect, diversity, collaboration, and continuous quality improvement, then please consider applying for the position (competitive salary and benefits, compensation commensurate with experience and qualifications).
