

College of Speech and Hearing Health Professionals of British Columbia

JOB POSTING

Program Coordinator, Registration & Certification

ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Located on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded lands of the $x^w m \theta k w \acute{e} y' \acute{e} m$ (Musqueam), $S \acute{k} w x w \acute{u} 7 m e s h$ (Squamish), and $s \acute{e} l i l w \acute{e} t \acute{a} \acute{t}$ (Tsleil-Waututh), the College of Speech and Hearing Health Professionals of BC (CSHBC) regulates three professions and approximately 2,100 registrants (audiologists, hearing instrument practitioners, and speech-language pathologists) in the public interest under the Health Professions Act and related regulations, as well as the bylaws and policies of the College. The College's statutory mandate is to protect the public's right to safe, competent, and ethical speech and hearing health care services in British Columbia.

To fulfill its mandate, the College sets registration standards for entry-to-practice licensure as well as higher-risk certification; ensures professional and ethical standards are maintained through enforcement of the College's quality assurance program; investigates complaints alleging professional misconduct; and where necessary takes disciplinary action where a registrant fails to comply with professional and/or ethical standards of practice.

As a not-for-profit public body, the College is funded entirely by licensing fees. The Board of the College is comprised of eight elected professionals and four public representatives appointed by the Government of British Columbia.

POSITION SUMMARY

Reporting to the Director, Registration & Certification, and the Deputy Registrar, the Program Coordinator, Registration & Certification, is responsible for providing administrative support to the College's processes for granting licensure to practice the three professions regulated by the College. This frontline position is based in Vancouver and tasked with a wide variety of administrative functions within the unit, ensuring smooth office administration.

The successful candidate will have very strong attention to detail, be organized, and have experience working with Client Relationship Management Systems (CRMs) – website, client database, email, social media platforms, etc.

SPECIFIC ACCOUNTABILITIES & DELIVERABLES

COMMUNICATIONS

- Manages incoming email enquiries through the College's enquiries and registration email addresses, responding to routine questions or notifying relevant staff of questions/comments that require further attention.

- Answers incoming telephone calls and voice mail messages, ensuring timely, effective, and respectful responses to basic enquiries.
- Distributes electronic mailings/notices to registrants.
- Receives College visitors in a helpful and professional manner.

REGISTRATION & CERTIFICATION

- Supports the Director, the Deputy Registrar, and the application and licensing functions of the College, by performing a variety of tasks related to applications for licensure, as assigned, including processing applications for registration and certification and administration of entry-to-practice examination processes.
- Provides support to potential applicants to ensure application packages are complete and ready for Registration Committee and/or Registrar & CEO or Deputy Registrar review.
- Provides CRM system support (College website, portals, Public Register, Open Regulate), including scanning, maintaining files and documents, and data entry of applicant/registrant information, and running reports from relevant information systems to assist the work of other staff.
- Coordinates and supports registrant annual registration and certification renewal and ad hoc registration status changes.
- Processes criminal record checks for applicants, coordinating and managing criminal record re-checks for registrants.
- As directed by the Director or Deputy Registrar, manages Registration Committee meeting documentation (meeting agendas, minutes) for access and review by Committee members.
- Supports the Director, Deputy Registrar, and team on all registration- and certification-related aspects of the College's CRM system.
- Refers questions to the Director, the Deputy Registrar, and the Registrar & CEO as appropriate.
- The Program Coordinator, Registration & Certification, contributes to a team approach with a public protection focus, delivering efficient and effective services that align with and allow the College to meet its regulatory, strategic, and operational goals.
- Training new staff as required.

COMPETENCIES

- Communicating Effectively involves good presentation skills (verbal and written), careful listening, and problem framing.
- Service Orientation implies a desire to identify and serve clients, who may include the public, registrants, co-workers, and other stakeholder organizations. It means focusing one's efforts on discovering and meeting the needs of the client.
- Teamwork and Cooperation is the ability to work co-operatively within diverse teams, work groups and across the organization to achieve group and organizational goals. It includes the desire and ability to understand and respond effectively to other people from diverse backgrounds with diverse views.
- Initiative involves identifying a problem, obstacle or opportunity and taking appropriate action to address current or future problems or opportunities. As such, initiative can be seen in the context of proactively doing things and not simply thinking about future actions.

- Listening, Understanding, and Responding is the desire and ability to understand and respond effectively to other people from diverse backgrounds. It includes the ability to understand accurately and respond effectively to both spoken and unspoken or partly expressed thoughts, feelings and concerns of others. People who demonstrate high levels of this competency show a deep and complex understanding of others.
- Improving Operations is the ability and motivation to apply one's knowledge and experience for improving upon current modes of operation within the unit. This behaviour ranges from adapting widely used approaches to development of entirely new value-added solutions.
- Planning, Organizing, and Coordinating involves proactively planning, establishing priorities and allocating resources. It is expressed by developing and implementing increasingly complex plans. It also involves monitoring and adjusting work to accomplish goals and deliver to the organization's mandate.
- Concern for Order reflects an underlying drive to reduce uncertainty in the surrounding environment. It is expressed as monitoring and checking work or information, insisting on clarity of roles and functions, etc.
